Program Management, Research and Evaluation

RELIABILITY | EFFICIENCY | CONSISTENCY

Bracane Company, Inc. (Bracane), a Small Business Administration (SBA) 8(a)-certified, minority-owned, women-owned research and evaluation firm has a proven track record of program management, conducting and evaluating research across healthcare, and human services. Founded in 2002, for over 20 years Bracane has conducted and supported over 300 research projects across multiple disciplines, including population health, pharmaceutical and consumer research.

WHY CHOOSE BRACANE

- Experience working with life science companies, and service providers, participants, policymakers, and other pertinent stakeholders, and understanding the holistic needs of diverse and underserved populations for health and human services organizations.
- Experience working with a wide range of federal, state, and local health and human services agencies to evaluate programs and policies, collect and analyze data that impacts the coordination of services and benefits of public health programs such as Ryan White Program, Medicaid, and Indigent Care.
- Rigorous research evaluation, in-house secure data collection, and analytical services. We support startup through closeout and project salvage or rescue.
- Staff with the critical knowledge necessary to conduct rigorous evaluation that ensure success.
- Unmatched capabilities as small businesses in stakeholder engagement
- developing detailed analysis plans; facilitating expert panels, analyzing qualitative interview data that generate actionable, equitable evidence to improve program, policy, and practice; and synthesizing information using highly effective data visualizations.
- Proven management and quality control systems to ensure high-quality, timely products and deliverables as evidenced by our exceptional/very good rating on our past performance questionnaires.
- Areas served: Canada, Dominican Republic, Germany, Ghana, Guatemala, Japan, Uganda, and Western Europe.

- PERFORMANCE: US Food and Drug Administration (FDA): Bracane provides project management and evaluation for research. Bracane developed tools to evaluate and monitor the quality of research conducted by the FDA, and currently supports the development of a Quality Management System for monitoring, tracking, and reporting projects.
- Consumer products: Our team worked closely with our client’s internal staff to develop an online survey for over 1,500 participants. In addition to the data collection, we analyzed the survey data and reported the key findings to the client. The project was a success, and we received positive feedback from the client for our expertise and dedication to meeting their needs.
